TWO NEW COACHES AT ORRHS

The Old Rochester Bulldogs are pleased to announce the additions to their sports staffs of two very capable and enthusiastic assistant coaches.

Appointed to the position of first football assistant is Mr. William H. Perry, a familiar figure on the local sports scene. Bill, a Fairhaven resident, captained and quarterbacked the 1962 Blue Devil squad. In his senior year he was selected to the second team All-Bristol County team for his outstanding play.

The second assistant, David A. Velesig, comes from Saltsburg, Pennsylvania, where he was the recipient of three varsity letters in high school and he captained the team in his senior year and was selected a center and linebacker on the All-Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Team. Dave continued his football at the University of Louisville where he earned two letters, centered an offense, and played three years of varsity football under Coach Frank Camp.

Head Coach Gerry Oliva has expressed his pleasure with the two selections and is looking forward to his initial season as Coach of the Bulldogs. He has been busy

ART CENTER PLANS BUSY SUMMER

On this Friday, July 11th, the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery will again present an interesting and diversified show featuring the sculpture of Marcia Ingraham and a display of original prints from the Nielsen Gallery of Boston.

Mrs. Ingraham, a resident of Marion for the past 4 years, is best known for her figures of women and children. She often uses her own children as models. Her works are in marble, wood and bronze and having studied both biology and dance, she has a deep understanding for line and movement. She has had works in several area shows including Provincetown Art Association, Falmouth Art Association and the Greater Fall River Art Association. She has also won many awards in competitive shows in Cherry Hill, Pa. and Brynmoor Art Show, Brynmoor, Pa.

The Nielsen Gallery is sending a variety of prints by Picasso, Micossi, Maki Ortega and many others. Both prints and lithographs will be shown and a special feature of this exhibit will be the new stainless steel framing.

The show will run July 12th through July 29th, regular gallery hours, 1 to 5 Tuesday thru Saturday.

The Center also wishes to announce the Art Classes for children 6 to 12 "Experiments in Art", beginning Thursday, July 10th, at 10 A. M. with Margo Voltera. Mrs. Voltera is well-known in the area for her many talents, as an art instructor at children's camps and at the Half-way through the second leg of the course, Duke and Hep Cat II exchanged positions. Hep Cat II then remained ahead the rest of the race with Duke finishing second.

In the afternoon of July 4th, two more special races were held. Jimmy Barnes sailed Irish Eyes to victory in the solo Corinthian race and Peter Briggs placed first in the Old Man's Race.

Both fleets sailed the same course, starting from the race committee boat anchored at mid-harbor to Sunken Ledge black can 5 to Mattapoisett Neck MYC guide buoy to Barnard's Wharf MYC guide buoy and finishing at the race committee boat anchored in mid-harbor.

The light winds had picked up slightly, shifting from south to southwest.

In the solo Corinthian race, F. Klein in Iterate was ahead at the start, but J. Barnes in Irish Eyes led the three-boat fleet rounding the first marker, holding this position to the end of the race for first honors. P. Clark's Instead placed second and F. Klein's Iterate third.

In the Old Man's Race, Peter Briggs in Eeyore led the fleet all the way. Phil Mc Carthy in Wolf was in second place until the last leg of the course when William Mee overtook him.

The first July Senior Race, scheduled for Saturday, July 5th, was postponed because of high winds and resailed on Sunday, July 6th. There was competition in two classes, with two races in each class.

The gusty winds of "small craft warning" intensity, which prevailed as the boats lined up for the start soon dropped to 10 miles per hour and, continuing to lessen, fell to under five miles, becoming extremely variable and fitful.

The Corinthians and Beetle Cats sailed identical courses. Rochester Historical Society

At the monthly meeting of the Rochester Historical Society, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gurney, the members expressed their appreciation to Donald Jenkins for donating his time, equipment and spray used to kill the underbrush at the Old Parish Cemetery, located on Braley Hill Road, Rochester.

Mrs. Donald Jenkins reported she placed flags on three soldiers' graves at the cemetery for Memorial Day: Caleb Coombs and Samuel Snow, both Revolutionary War soldiers, and John Bennett of the French and Indian War.

James Gurney reported that he had successfully repaired the broken tombstone belonging to Hannah Snow, wife of Samuel Snow.

Ralph Walker and Harry A. Brown, Jr., Selectmen and members, offered to the Society the large brass scale, presently at the Town Hall. They noted that the scale is no longer used by the Sealer of Weights and Measures.

All members present concurred that the Society must locate a building to house the many donations they have received, and other historical articles have been promised to the Society when they have a building to display them.

At 6:30 P.M., a roast beef dinner, planned by Mrs. Ralph H. Winters and Mrs. Wilfred I. Daniel, will be served. Piano music during dinner will be followed after 8 P.M. by music sweet and low for dancing under the moonlit skies of St. Gabriel's courtyard. In addition to roast beef, the dinner menu includes baked potato, peas, green salad, rolls and relish tray, ice cream and brownies, iced tea and

Crescent Beach Ramblings

Hello folks - here we are back at the old stand giving you the news of Crescent Beach for the summer of 1969.

We have been down here since April 1st, finishing our new cottage which will be known as Charmcrest.

It was cold, wet and miserable for the first few weeks, but we have had the joy of watching the trees come into leaf and spring unfold its beauty for another year.

We welcome you all back again, and take this opportunity to greet all of the newcomers to our association.

As you know, Raymond Hall, like London Bridge, has fallen down. The wind storms of the past winter picked our community house to do its worst damage, and now we have the job of rebuilding it.

Through community effort we can do it. Many additional contributions have been received and will be so recorded on a permanent plaque. It has been suggested that while dues will remain the same - viz - 15.00 for this year, those who possibly can will give voluntarily an extra 5.00 or 10.00 to cover our rather large deficit.

That's the way it is folks, and with your help, a little sacrifice and cooperation we shall overcome.

At this writing ninety-eight members have paid their dues. This is an auspicious beginning. We are shooting for 165 or 100%.

Many of the roads have been graded and filled, the beach was cleaned, and the rear of Raymond Hall has been razed.

On Thursday of this week at 8 P.M. the first of our whist parties will be held, and every Thursday thereafter.

Due to space limitations we can only have ten tables. So come early folks if you want to play.

The annual races for the children were held on July 4th and the weather man cooperated by giving us a beautiful day.

The junior group has commenced operations. Already the street signs are in place, which helps to make Crescent Beach more attractive.

So, folks, have a nice summer, keep well, drive carefully and you will hear more next week. Bring your news to me before 6 P.M. Saturday. Victor W. Charman

Residents of Mattapoisett are advised they may finally get rid of those piles of old newspapers and magazines that have been accumulating for months. You may either drop off your scrap paper there or phone 6234 or 3897.
